Foreword

We have come to the end of our high school career. In this one volume we are presenting the story of one of the happiest years at Burley. We invite you to join us in re-living some scholastic, social, and athletic experiences. As you delve through the pages, may your enjoyment equal ours.

Dedication

To our parents whose able assistance and loyal understanding helped us to successfully complete our work in high school,

To our teachers whose enthusiasm in our progress inspired our work in the classroom,

To our undergraduates, whom we leave behind, in hopes that we have left a desirable pattern which they might choose to follow,

To these three, as a token of esteem, this yearbook is dedicated

Class

Our stay in high school has indeed been a pleasant one. Surely, many unforgettable events have taken place.

We know that anxiety leads to success. Through our anxiety to attain new goals and our interest in our achievements, we have reached another milestone toward success.

Realizing that if our ventures were few our gains could not have been many, we readily began to prepare our selves and apply ourselves, as well, for what was and is to come.

Reliving ourpast, we looked into the mirror and saw as a shadow the many activities we participated in to gain recognition for ourselves and Burley as well.

When we entered Burley for the first time as students, our hearts thumped and our emotions were greatly aroused. The day was September 4, 1953. Our class was an ambitious and industrious one.

As the shadows, still clear, fell behind us, we found Russell Scott, Doris Allen and Wayne Stevens playing their hearts out in the band. We were proud to know, that there were people in the eighth grade who were really musically inclined. But still there was the choral phase of music to be covered. There, Mary Crenshaw and Angie Brown sang daily. Instead of taking a part in the chorus, Howard Brown joined the N.F.A. Quartet. Our class would not have been complete without having the athletic type as a part of it. Mercer Watkins became a member of the junior varsity basketball squad. Frances Jones turned to the N.H.A. to make herself a better homemaker in the future.

This year passed without hesitation. Most of us spent a busy year and each of us seemingly had definite obligations.

By the time we had reached the ninth grade, we began to feel more like Burleyites. We understood better the operations and administration of Burley. We were aware of the fact that activities or organizations were still prevalent within the school.

Johanna Banks decided that she was ready to become a member of the chorus and display her musical ability. Rachel Thompson and Elson Redmond were thinking in terms of homemaking and the upkeep of property in general so they joined the N.H.A. and the N.F.A. Lottie Payne became one of Miss Homecoming's attendants which made our ~~while~~ class gleam.

As we culminated our activities for the year, our teachers constantly told us that we were to set our aims higher. Bearing this in mind, we immediately began preparing ourselves for our sophomore year.

We suddenly began to realize the importance of science, mathematics and foreign language. Elrese Jones joined Le Cercle Francais and Mary Ellen White took an active part in the science and mathematics club. Willis Carter decided to play junior varsity basketball and Charles Louis Barbour played football. As a part of Burley's musical achievements, Lula Adams became a member of the All-State Band at Virginia State College. Ethel Dorsey joined the N.H.A. and Eric Starks and Leroy Thomas became interested in industrial arts.

History

Consciously enough, we noticed that the shadow we saw in the mirror upon our entrance into the eighth grade was becoming dim. Our future was being made clearer to us.

After successfully completing another year of education, we felt that we were ready to become juniors. In order to be loyal to our school, we knew that we must continue to apply ourselves at opportune times.

Caroll White ventured into the Scientific world and joined the science and mathematics club. Mary Luck became a cheerleader; Willie Williams, a halfback on the football team, and John Bolling and Franklin White joined the Industrial Arts Club.

The culminating activity was our prom. This was an event long to be remembered.

When we returned to school the following September, we were seniors. We felt that we were to play the leading roles in all phases of school life. This was because the word seniors to us, meant leaders.

This year, we had a strong Student participation Association. Barbara Brackett and Barbara Churchman were members with Geneva Hurley and Alice Washington. In the spotlight of this organization, we found William Bailey who was President and Robert Carter who was State President. Sheila Porter was captain of the cheering squad and James Shackelford, along with Lester Washington, was co-captain of the football team. Isaac Curry and Harold Jackson were also in the limelight on the football team.

Mary Helen Whiting found pleasure in journalism and became editor-in-chief of the Burley Bulletin. Shirley Woody organized the Rainbow Art Club. James Jordan dedicated his leisure time to the Industrial Arts Club.

We cannot forget the efficient work of our editor of the year book. Edward Pleasants accepted the responsibility with a smile.

The shadow has almost faded completely and the mirror reflects the future. Now that we have joyously, enthusiastically, and successfully completed our stay at Burley, we are appreciative of all that it has bestowed upon us. Our teachers were great.

Since tomorrow faces us, we feel that we are able to accept willingly every challenge that it offers.

Thanks to Burley.

Class Poem

We've reached our goal; it's "58."
From dear Burley, we'll graduate.
Though tedious the toil to accomplish this mission
Departure from Burley will cause tears to glisten.

It seemed like such a long time - five years ago,
But our days here passed like swift rivers flow.
Reminiscing makes you feel sentimental
Toward events that were happy and events that were resentful.

For while we were here, we did our best
To drive our Burley to the top of the crest.
We know there is none greater than J.P.B.
We did our best to become part of thee.

Although our bodies are leaving you,
Our hearts and spirits will remain, forever true.
So, seniors, if you find success,
Remember Burley helped in that conquest.

Class Motto

The higher we climb, the broader the view.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1958, in the city of Charlottesville, State of Virginia, county of Albemarle, being of sound minds, and of healthy bodies and about to leave this school, do publish and declare this document to be our Last Will and Testament.

To the Board of Education, we express our sincere appreciation for the splendid plan of education that was set before us.

To our Principal, we say, "Thanks for all that you did for us."

To the Faculty, we leave our thanks for their patience, understanding, and guidance.

To our Sponsors, we leave our heartfelt gratitude for everything.

To the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, we leave our position, our responsibilities and our yearbook full of memories to be cherished over the years to come.

To the members of the Sophomore Class, who think they are brainy, but yet so brainless, we leave a book entitled "Success and Brain Power," by the well known authors, Hurley and Robinson.

To the Freshman Class, we leave this thought: "Though the top may seem a long way off, if you but put forth a little effort, you can soon reach it."

To the Eighth Grade Class, we leave you a set of weights so that you can hold yourself down.

To the Football Team of 1958, we leave the splendid record made by the Senior members of the 1957 team.

To all organizations that had Seniors as members, officers and leaders, we leave our hopes that you will be able to replace them with students that will do equally as well.

To all those persons, who had any connection whatsoever with our success we say, "Thanks."

We leave as sole executors of this Last Will and Testament, Mrs. Snowden, Mrs. Word, and Mrs. Wright, our Senior Class Sponsors.

Class Prophecy

As you read into this account, you will find the future of the members of our class. For the purpose of this prophecy we have used the favored crystal ball.

The ball is just a mist, but ah, there is someone who looks like Mary Crenshaw with her three little kids. She has finally married Willis Carter. Well, what do you know? The new managers of the A & A Cafe are Kanuso Breckenridge and Richard Monroe. A look at the billboard of tonight's entertainment will reveal Geneva Hurley and Russell Scott, dancing, Johanna Banks and Robert Allen, singing the blues (opera style) and Lula Adams and and Robert Tuberville playing happy little tunes on their instruments.

Now, I see crowds and crowds of people waiting in line to hear Willie Jefferson recite a collection of his latest poems. Mary E. White is just leaving the Beauty Parlor owned and operated by Doris Allen & Carol Dickerson. Oh, I see two customers entering who are no other than Mary Robinson and Sheila Porter going in to get the most recent gossip and carry the latest news.

Over on Commerce Street I see the "Sleepy Hallow" Nursery operated by Rachel Thompson with Beulah Brock, Barbara Churchman, and Shirley Earley as her assistants. Mary Luck and Barbara Brackett fix the menus for the children. As Rachel's nurses we have Frances and Elrese Jones.

Now in my crystal ball I see that James Shackelford is coaching the world's famous Globe Trotters with Mercer Watkins taking over where Goose Tatum left off. Lester Washington and William Redd are playing for the Baltimore Colts; Robert Ferguson with the New York Giants while Willie Williams has taken over as backfield coach of the U.V.A. Cavaliers.

As my crystal ball gets hazy, I must pause for awhile until the mist clears. Now I see William Bailey and Robert Carter sitting in their law offices with Alice Washington and Lottie Payne as their secretaries. Mary H. Whiting is a client of Lawyer Carter talking over divorce proceedings from her fifth husband.

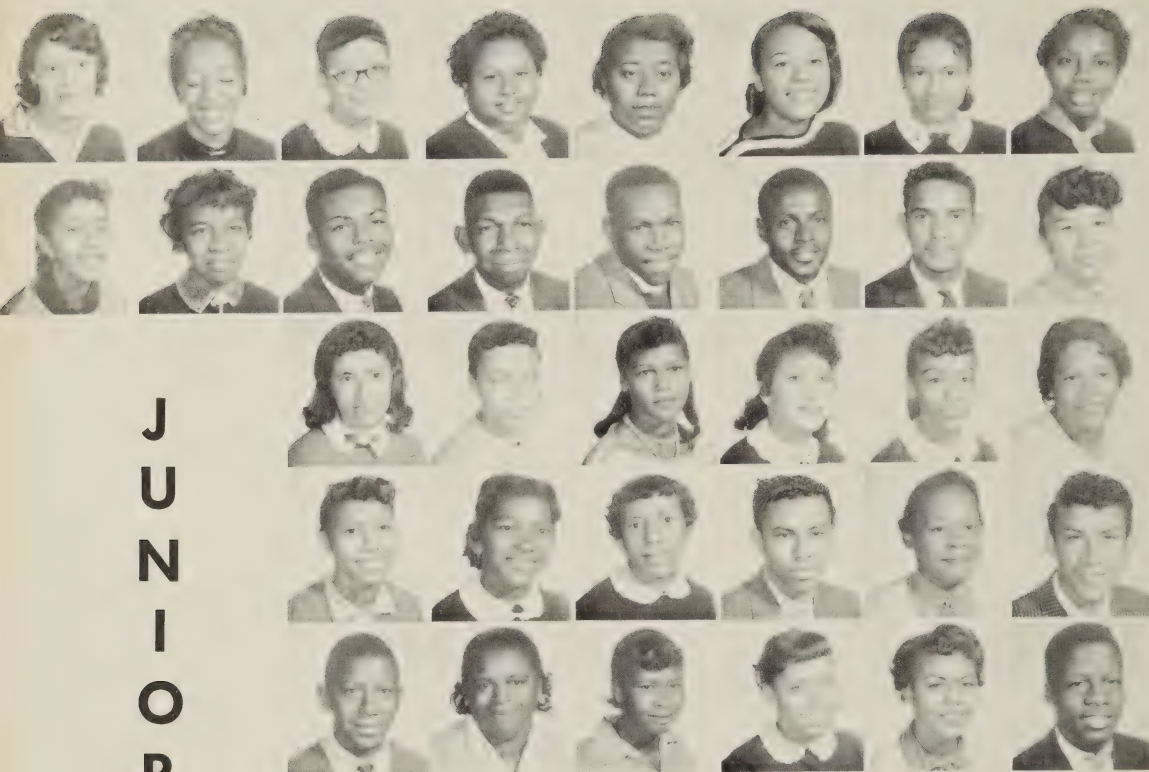

When I look out of the window I see a Jet Plane being piloted by my old classmate Edward Pleasants. Dr. John Hill is ready with his bag in case there might be an emergency landing. Charles Lee Barbour and Lewis Williams are the ambulance drivers. Charles Louis Barbour owns the new Cash Food Mart on Rt. 29, while Isaac Curry has taken over Look-Rite Cleaners where Mr. Hicks left off. I can see Charles Bolling and Howard Brown as managers of the Steak House.

A heavy mist is appearing again, and it doesn't seem to clear up; so I must say good-bye and lots of luck to the Senior Class of 1958.

CLASSES

English

"English enriches living as well as deepening understanding of social relations." - Strang

Social Studies

"The greatest secret of success in life is to be ready when your opportunity comes." - Disraeli

Biology

A scientific attitude, is characterized by an inquiring mind and a willingness to reserve judgement, accept conclusions, which are warranted by the evidence, and revise erroneous opinions.

Speech

"A great mind speaks with more ease and more composure." - Seneca

English

It is necessary to be a good listener as well as a good speaker.

Solid Geometry

"There will always be a frontier where there is an open mind and a willing hand." - Kettering

Homemaking

Learning Through Doing

Physics

Who can foretell the future dominated by the inquisitive spirit of Man?

Farm Mechanics

A knowledge of farm mechanics is a must in farming in this day of farm mechanization.

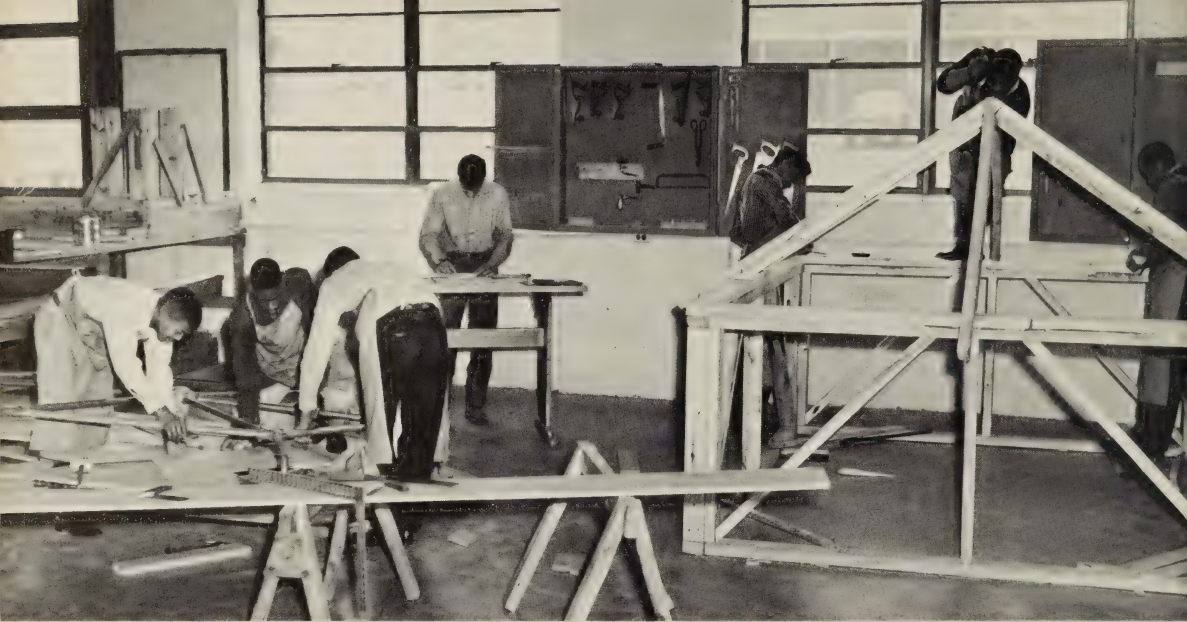

Chemistry

Today's youth are tomorrow's scientists.

English

An attempt is being made here to give the student a point of view from which he can see his writing problems in perspective, and thus encourage him to adapt a more discriminating attitude toward his linguistic decisions.

Carpentry

Preparing Today for Tomorrow's Success

Masonry

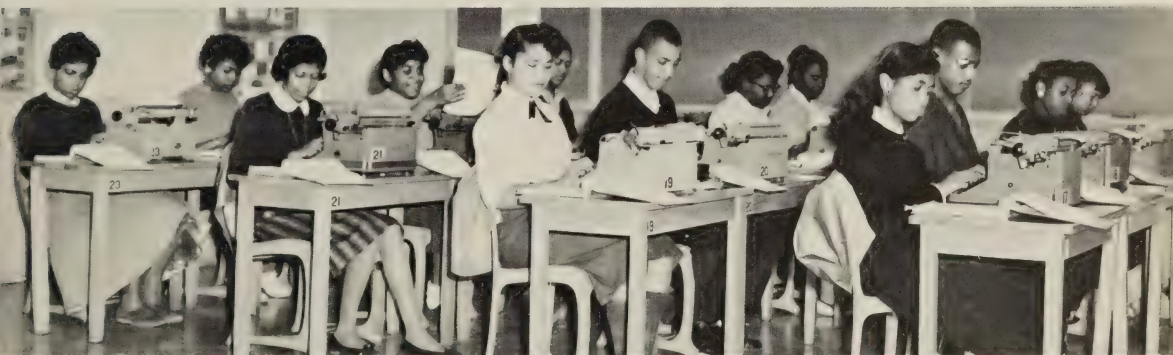

"Knowledge is a treasure, but practice is the key to it." - Fuller

Typewriting

Students in this beginning typing class strive to reach either the personal typing goal of 30 net words a minute on 3-5 minute writings with no more than 3 errors or the vocational typing goal of 35 net words a minute on 3-5 minute writings with no more than 3 errors. These goals are set up by the state and students are expected to reach either of them before passing the course.

Mrs. E. H. Wilson
Instructor

Through participation in physical education activities such as these, girls learn the fundamentals of democratic living. They also develop flexibility, agility and coordination qualities which will help them live healthful, safe and efficient lives.

"The secret of happiness is never to allow your energies to stagnate,"--Clarke

Physical Education

Mrs. A. W. Pleasants, Instructor

"Often we pitch and sometimes we catch, but at least once everyday we must hit the ball,"--Owen

Physical Education

"To him who has striven, even defeat is victory." - Owen

Industrial Arts

Plane Geometry

"The common facts of today are the product of yesterday's research." - - MacDonald

Practical Nursing

A trained practical nurse is a person prepared by an approved educational program to share in the care of the sick and in prevention of illness, under the direction of a licensed physician and/or a registered professional nurse.

Class Motto is not "Live and let live," but "Live and help live."

Pictured above in the usual order are:

N. F. A.

The New Farmers of America is the National Organization of boys studying vocational agriculture in the public schools throughout the United States--organized in Virginia, May 1927.

N. H. A.

Better Homes for a Better Nation

Band

"Successful band building is 98% organization and 2% perspiration." The Burley band, under the leadership of Elmer F. Sampson, has won many honors: four superior ratings in district and state music festivals, twelve first chair positions in all-state band in 1957. Officers are: Roland Young, president; Robert Turberville, assistant conductor; Clarence Ivory, librarian.

E. F. Sampson, Director

Thespian Society

"In all ages the drama, through its portrayal of the acting and suffering spirit of man, has been more closely allied than any other art to his deeper thoughts concerning his nature and his destiny."--

Lewisohn

Chorus

"Music is the mediator between the spiritual and the sensual life. Although the spirit be not master of that which it creates through music, yet it is blessed in this creation, which, like every creation of art, is mightier than the artist."--Beethoven

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais is composed of the members of the French classes. It offers to its members a minimum of eight meetings a year from November through May. The program of Le Cercle consists of music, speeches, films, etc., some of which are contributed by persons who are invited to visit the club at various times. Le Cercle Francais made a tape recording of six Christmas carols which were played around the corridors by means of the inter-communication system on December 20, 1957.

The officers of Le Cercle Francais are: Le President-Roland Young, La Vice President-Virginia Moore, La Secretaire-Dorothy Taylor, Le Secretaire Assistant, Marshall Garrett, La Tresorier-Joanne Woodfolk.

The S. P. A.

The Student Participation Association is an organization through which the students participate in the administering of school policy. It seeks to acquaint students with the democratic processes by fostering schoolwide elections, through which officers are obtained. It serves as a forum for student opinions. Its projects for the year included:

1. Installation of student officers
2. Distributing Thanksgiving baskets
3. Promoting socials
4. Presenting a banner to the school
5. Setting up a code of ethics
6. Providing music in the cafeteria
7. Serving as host to the 10th Annual State Convention

Mr. Garrett,
I have found it a great pleasure to have been in your class. Some days have been trying for you, but I hope we haven't caused any gray hairs to grow. You've been a great help to me in more than one way.
You are very understanding.
I'll remember you always.
